While we appreciate the top Engineering Colleges in India (especially IIT Kharagpur, IIT Roorkee, IT-BHU and all others) for participating and providing detailed information for our survey, the remaining IIT's / NIT's and a few others did not respond for reasons not known to us. Since we do not believe on perception-based survey results, some of the institutes including other IITs and known engineering colleges, which did not provide the data, have not been rated and ranked. We do not know where they stand in competition with the institutes that participated in this survey.
